LPPD investigators file trio of capital murder warrants within days after homicide

During the early morning hours of January 15th, La Porte Police Officers responded to the courtyard of an apartment complex within the 3000 block of South Broadway after receiving several 911 calls of gunshots. Upon arrival, LPPD located a Black Male, later identified as 30 year-old Marcus Green of the La Porte/Baytown area, lying in the courtyard motionless as an apparent victim of gunshot wounds.

LPPD investigators and crime scene units canvassed the area for witnesses, interviewed several area residents, and were able to develop a series of leads which ultimately led to the identification of the assailants.

Capital Murder charges have since been filed in the 182nd District Court against 19 year-old Craig Lamont Williams Jr of Baytown, 27 year-old Cornay Crawford of La Porte, and 18 year-old Cheyenne Marie Totten of Baytown. While Totten is in custody, and Crawford's attorney has arranged custody for later today, Williams remains at-large. LPPD investigators are asking for any information regarding William's location. Investigators can be reached at 281-842-3173, and if you wish to remain anonymous, please contact Houston Crime Stoppers at 713-272-TIPS (8477).
